

The School of Nursing (SON), located in the downtown Atlanta campus of Georgia State University (GSU), currently provides a premier multicultural learning experience to more than 555 undergraduate and graduate students. The SON offers collaborative opportunities with many GSU centers and institutes focused on urban health, health disparities, health policy and law, and gerontology. We invite applications for the following six full-time faculty positions:

Director – Doctorate of Philosophy Program (9-month, Tenure Track appointment): The successful candidate will be eligible for appointment as Associate or Full Professor. Candidates must hold a research doctorate in nursing or a related field and have an established program of research. Responsibilities will include leadership in curriculum development and evaluation, as well as teaching, student recruitment, and advisement. Other duties include faculty and resource development. Prior administrative, PhD level teaching, accreditation, and curriculum development experience is preferred. The successful candidate will have a teaching and scholarly record commensurate with the rank of Associate Professor or Professor. For inquiries regarding this position, please contact Dr. Dawn Aycock at: daycock@gsu.edu

Director – Doctor of Nursing Practice Program (9-month, Tenure or Non-Tenure Track appointment): The ideal candidate will be eligible for appointment as Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor. Responsibilities will include leadership in curriculum development and evaluation, as well as student recruitment. Other duties will include faculty and resource development. Candidates must be Georgia RN licensed/license eligible and hold a doctorate in nursing (PhD, DNS, DNP), a master's in nursing, or equivalent degree; at least two years of teaching at the graduate level; as well as a teaching and scholarly record commensurate with the rank of Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor. Preference will be given to advanced practice nurses or those with a record of scholarship in health systems research. For inquiries regarding this position, please contact Dr. Sarah Killian at: skillian@gsu.edu

Log # 17-124

Assistant/Associate Professor (9-month, Tenure Track appointments): Responsibilities for these two positions include developing or advancing a focused program of funded research and teaching in the undergraduate and/or graduate programs. Other responsibilities include student advisement and mentoring, as well as service. Minimum qualifications include: PhD or equivalent research doctoral degree. While a preference will be given to nurse researchers, other health-related disciplines will be considered. Certification as an advanced practice RN and teaching experience desirable. Competitive compensation package with startup funds are available. For inquiries regarding these positions, please contact Dr. Dawn Aycock at: daycock@gsu.edu

Log # 17-125

Clinical Instructor/Assistant/Associate Professor (9-month, Non-Tenure Track appointments): Responsibilities for these two positions include teaching in our undergraduate and/or graduate programs and participating in scholarly activities. Other responsibilities include student advisement and mentoring, as well as service. Rank will be determined based on prior clinical and/or teaching experience. Preference will be given to those with a DNP or PhD or equivalent doctoral degree and prior teaching experience. Minimum qualifications include: Georgia RN license/license eligible; master's degree in nursing; and a minimum of two years of nursing practice and teaching experience. Certification such as nurse practitioner or clinical nurse specialist with current practice experience desirable. For inquiries regarding these positions, please contact Dr. Sarah Killian at: skillian@gsu.edu
